

Rod Stonehocker Memorial Scholarship Application

Scholarship Description

In 2007 the Rod Stonehocker Memorial Scholarship was dedicated to enhance educational opportunities for Denton High School graduates who want to pursue a career in engineering. Rod was a 2001 graduate of Denton High School and a 2006 graduate of Montana Tech with a Bachelor of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering, with a minor in Mathematics. Rod demonstrated outstanding academic accomplishment and commitment to many extracurricular activities. His most notable extracurricular accomplishments were as a defensive lineman for both the Denton Trojans and the Montana Tech Diggers. Community service and youth development programs such as 4-H and FFA were also core principles in Rod's life.

The Rod Stonehocker Memorial Scholarship is for any student graduating from Denton High School intending to attend or currently enrolled at Montana Tech of the University of Montana or Montana State University Bozeman in engineering. Qualified applicants may apply and or receive the scholarship more than once. Qualified applicants must also have a cumulative GPA of 2.5 or better.
